Tips

Topics are saved searches that do not fit squarely into the other categories. Manzama has created searches for many topical areas in business and law.

To add a new Topic to your profile, type in a few words that are representative of the topic, such as Patent, FCPA, or Artificial Intelligence. Manzama will attempt to autocomplete the entry; once the correct search is found, click it to add it to your profile. If Manzama is unable to autocomplete the entry, you may choose to create your own custom search. Click here for instructions.
