

IS IT TIME TO SELF REGULATE: Employment Statistics & Professional Data

Clara Solomon, New York University School of Law
Melissa Berry, Lane Powell

EXISTING SERVICES

Who provides these services? How? When?

- Review of materials (resume, cover letter)
- Interview preparation
- Employer research assistance
- Employer and/or alumni networking
- Job postings
- Campus interviews/organized job fairs
- Employer outreach
- Bar exam support

COLLECTING EMPLOYMENT DATA

- Diversity
 - Type
 - Size
 - Location
 - Delivery method
 - Student body
- Factors
 - Timing
 - Method of collection
 - Definition of employment
- Publication/Reporting
 - Where?
 - To whom?

DEVELOPING STANDARDS OR BEST PRACTICES

- Should schools be required to provide career resources?
 - Who sets the standards?
- What are student expectations of outcomes?
 - Can these be assessed?
 - Do career resources match the marketing?
- Can a uniform set of standards be developed?