

AALS Section on European Law Call for Papers

Emerging and New Voices in European Law: Works-in-Progress Panel

The AALS Section on European Law is pleased to announce a Call for Papers for its “Emerging and New Voices in European Law” work-in-progress workshop. The session will be held virtually on Friday, January 7 from 4:45-6:00 p.m. (EST). The workshop will bring together up to four junior scholars and senior European law scholars for the purpose of giving junior scholars constructive feedback on their scholarship and helping them prepare their work for submission for publication.

Format: Each junior scholar will be paired with at least one senior scholar who will comment on the paper presented. Junior scholars’ presentations will be followed by oral comments from senior scholars and further discussion, as time permits. The senior commentators will be prepared to offer constructive comments at the session, and they are strongly encouraged to provide them also in writing to the junior scholar.

Submission procedure: Junior scholars who are interested in participating in the program should send an abstract (or longer summary) or draft-in-progress to the Chair of the Section on European Law, Paolo Saguato, at psaguato@gmu.edu, on or before September 1, 2021. The cover email should state the junior scholar’s institution, academic status, number of years in her or his current position, and any previous positions in academia. Submitted papers must be “in progress” as of the time of the Annual Meeting in January 2022 (a paper accepted for publication but still undergoing revision is considered “in progress”). The subject line of the email should read: “Submission—EU WIP Program 2022.” Junior scholars whose papers are selected for the program will need to submit their draft paper to the Section Chair by December 12, 2021, in order that the assigned commenters will have sufficient time to read the drafts prior to the Annual Meeting. The authors of the accepted papers will be notified by September 20, 2021.

Eligibility: Junior and emerging scholars (pre-tenure or teaching for eight or fewer years) are encouraged and eligible to submit their papers.

Publication Opportunity: Junior scholars who submit their papers for the panel can indicate their interest in having their piece exclusively considered for publication in the International Law Journal, volume 15 (<http://www.georgemasonjicl.org/>). Authors will be notified of the acceptance for publication by January 19, 2022.

Senior scholars interested in serving as commentators:

If you are interested in serving as a commentator for a paper submitted by a junior scholar, please email Paolo Saguato at psaguato@gmu.edu by September 1, 2021. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

On behalf of the Section on European Law

Chair: Paolo Saguato, George Mason University, Antonin Scalia Law School

Chair-Elect: Vlad Perju, Boston College Law School

Secretary: Tracy A. Kaye, Seton Hall University School of Law

Executive Committee Members:

Kristen Barnes, Syracuse University College of Law

Francesca Bignami, The George Washington University Law School

Daniela Caruso, Boston University School of Law

Peter L. Lindseth, University of Connecticut School of Law

Fernanda Giorgia Nicola, American University, Washington College of Law

Kim Lane Scheppelle, Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs

Panagiotis T. Tridimas, The Pennsylvania State University – Penn State Law