

Emerging Scholars in Legislation & Law of the Political Process

The AALS Section on Legislation & Law of the Political Process invites submissions for a session to be held at the AALS 2025 annual meeting. The annual meeting will be held January 7-11 in San Francisco, California. The Call for Papers presenters will be responsible for paying their registration fee and hotel and travel expenses. The details on the session are below. If you are interested in participating in this session, please email the paper or work-in-progress to be presented to Jamie Macleod at james.macleod@brooklaw.edu by 5 PM EST on Friday, September 6. Projects at any stage of completion are welcome.

This session looks to highlight and discuss the work of emerging scholars in the fields of legislation and the law of the political process. The session seeks submissions from scholars who have been in academic positions for fewer than six years. Any work that addresses the topics of legislation or the law of the political process is welcome.
