

Call for Papers and Commentators

New Scholarship in EU Law

AALS Section on European Law
AALS Annual Meeting, 2:40-4:10pm, Wednesday, January 8, 2025

The AALS Section on European Law is pleased to announce a Call for Papers for its New Scholarship in European Union Law panel. The session will be held on Wednesday, January 8, 2025, from 2:40-4:10 p.m. (PST) in San Francisco, CA. The workshop will bring together up to four authors and senior European law scholars for the purpose of providing participating authors constructive feedback on their scholarship and helping them prepare their work for submission for publication.

Format: Each author will be paired with a senior scholar who will comment on the paper presented. Presentations will be followed by oral comments and, as time permits, further discussion. Senior commentators will be prepared to offer constructive comments at the session and are strongly encouraged to also share them in writing with the participating authors.

Submission procedure: Authors who are interested in participating in the program should send an abstract, longer summary, or draft-in-progress to the Chair of the Section on European Law (Paul Linden-Retek, plinden@buffalo.edu) by September 1, 2024. Submitted papers should be “in progress” as of the time of the 2025 Annual Meeting (a paper accepted for publication but still undergoing revision is considered “in progress”). Please use the following subject line for your email: “Submission—AALS EU Program 2025.” Scholars whose papers are selected for the program will need to submit their draft paper to the Section Chair by December 13, 2024, in order to give the assigned commentator sufficient time to read and reflect on the draft prior to the Annual Meeting. Authors of the accepted papers will be notified by September 20, 2024.

Eligibility: All European Law scholars. Junior and emerging scholars (pre-tenure or teaching for eight or fewer years) are especially encouraged to submit their papers.

Senior scholars interested in serving as commentators: Please email Paul Linden-Retek at plinden@buffalo.edu by September 1, 2024. Thank you in advance for your generosity and time.
